ADVOCATES AND SOLICITORS

Individual practitioners please contact us for 50% discounted rates

Lawyers are an integral part of a mediation process. As their 'combative' role changes to a more 'collaborative' one, the skills and expertise required in mediation vary from those that are required in litigation.

Chief Trainer: Laila Ollapally
(Founder & Mediator, CAMP)

Laila is an internationally certified mediator and trainer, trained at Harvard Law School and recipient of the Weinstein Fellowship. She is the founding coordinator of the Bangalore Mediation Centre.

Members of the CAMP team will assist Ms. Ollapally with the workshop that would include knowledge sessions, visual presentations, discussions and role plays.

This workshop will focus on:

Differences between Mediation and Adjudication

Developing a deeper understanding of the Mediation process

Roles of Advocates in Mediation

Preparing for a Mediation and Representing a Client in a Mediation

How and When to Recommend Mediation to a Client

The Do's and Don'ts while participating in Mediation

How to Negotiate a Satisfactory Mediation Settlement for your Client

Venue: CAMP, 46, 36th Main, BTM Dollar Scheme, Bangalore – 560068
